3                   registered representative for a covered financial 4                   institution; and

5                   (B) made the disclosure with reasonable
6                   care including reasonable efforts to avoid disclo-
7                   sure other than to a covered agency.

8                   (2) IMMUNITY FOR COVERED FINANCIAL INSTITU-
9                   TIONS.—A covered financial institution shall not be 10                  liable, including in any civil or administrative pro-
11                  ceeding, for a disclosure made by an individual de-12                  scribed in paragraph (1) if—

13                  (A) the individual was employed by, or, in 14                  the case of a registered representative, affiliated 15                  or associated with, the covered financial institu-16                  tion at the time of the disclosure; and

17                  (B) before the time of the disclosure, the cov-
18                  ered financial institution provided the training
19                  described in section 3 to each individual de-
20                  scribed in section 3(a).

21                  SEC. 3. TRAINING REQUIRED.

22                  (a) IN GENERAL.—A covered financial institution 23                  may provide training described in subsection (b)(1) to each 24                  officer or employee of, or registered representative affiliated 25                  or associated with, the covered financial institution who—

1                   (1) is described in section 2(b)(1)(A);
2                   (2) may come into contact with a senior citizen
3                   as a regular part of the duties of the officer, employee, 4                   or registered representative; or 5                   (3) may review or approve the financial docu-
6                   ments, records, or transactions of a senior citizen in 7                   connection with providing financial services to a sen-
8                   ior citizen.

9                   (b) TRAINING.—

10                  (1) IN GENERAL.—The training described in this 11                  paragraph shall—

12                  (A) instruct any individual attending the 13                  training on how to identify and report the sus-
14                  pected exploitation of a senior citizen;

15                  (B) discuss the need to protect the privacy
16                  and respect the integrity of each individual cus-17                  tomer of a covered financial institution; and

18                  (C) be appropriate to the job responsibilities
19                  of the individual attending the training.

20                  (2) TIMING.—The training required under sub-
21                  section (a) shall be provided as soon as reasonably 22                  practicable but not later than 1 year after the date 23                  on which an officer, employee, or registered represent-24                  ative begins employment with or becomes affiliated or 25                  associated with the covered financial institution.

1                             (3) BANK SECRECY ACT OFFICER.—An individual
2        who is designated as a compliance officer
3        under an anti-money laundering program established
4        pursuant to section 5318(h) of title 31, United States
5        Code, shall be deemed to have received the training
6        described under this subsection.

7   SEC. 4. RELATIONSHIP TO STATE LAW.

8        Nothing in this Act shall be construed to preempt or 9       limit any provision of State law, except only to the extent 10      that section 2 provides a greater level of protection against 11      liability to an individual described in section 2(b)(1) or 12      to a covered financial institution described in section
13      2(b)(2) than is provided under State law.
